Thank you for your interest in being a UYFA coach. Those applying to be head coach will be contacted by Chuck Fessler concerning the date, time, and place of your interview.

The following questions are typical of what might be asked during the head coach interview and are intended to be "food for thought":

- What offense do you intend to run?
- How many offensive plays will your team use during the season?
- What is your left tackle's first step – direction and distance – on your favorite play against a 5-3 defense?
- What blocking rule does your tight end employ on your off-tackle play to his side?
- What defense do you intend to run?
- How many defensive formations will your team use during the season?
- In your base defense, who has the quarterback after he pitches the ball?
